—George W. Cassidy is somewhere in Colorado and will probably not be in Nevada at the sitting of the Democratic State Convention.

—Business at the St. Charles Hotel has again began to pick up under the management of Mr. Ebner the landlord. Give him a call.

—Doctors Lee and Davison yesterday amputated the leg of Victor Dazzi, whose limb was broken by being thrown from a horse last week.

—The Humboldt river is nearly dry. If this late rain has reached that section of the State it will be worth millions of dollars as the grass was all drying up.

—Rather than see a vacancy on the Democratic ticket for Supreme Judge, Boss Sadler of Eureka has expressed his willingness to accept the nomination for that position.

—It is reported that the Storey county business men will petition the Governor to rescind the order directing the militia to appear at Carson for inspection on the Fourth of July.

—Lost—A black and tan setter pup, about three or four months old. White on his breast and toes on left fore foot white. Anyone returning the same to me will be liberally rewarded. G. W. RICHARD.

—The Democratic State Convention will convene at noon tomorrow at Virginia City. The indications are that the delegates to the National Convention, will be instructed for Cleveland, without a dissenting voice.

—Whether on land or at sea, or on the prairie or in the crowded city, Ayer's Pills are the best cathartic, being convenient, efficacious and safe. For torpid liver, indigestion, and sick head ache they never fail.

—There is no danger to human life more to be dreaded than that which arises from vitiated blood. Dyspepsia, rheumatism, headache and general debility, all arise from it, and are cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Take it this month. Six bottles, $5.

—A miserable Bourbon connected with Uncle Sam's gold and silver foundry up the street says:

"The attempt to attribute the failure of William T. Coleman and Co. to a bill which has been introduced in Congress is like the excuse of the fellow for taking a drink. He said he felt dry as he was going to have salt fish for dinner."

—People have already began to steal flowers out of the Capitol grounds. The Capitol Commissioners are getting tired of posting notices on the trees, and in the flower beds, and of warning people to not pick the flowers and to keep off the grass. They now propose to prosecute the first person caught, to the full extent of the law without further warning.

WINNEMUCCA CONVENTION

THE CONVENTION TEMPORARILY ORGANIZED.

The General Outlook—Woodburn Willing But the Convention Isn't.

(Special to the Appeal)

WINNEMUCCA May 15th 6 P. M. The Republican State Convention was called to order at 1 P. M. by Col. F. C. Lord, of the Republican State Central Committee. Judge Wells of Carson was chosen Temporary Chairman and G. S. Nixon Secretary.

Committee of one from each county was appointed on credentials, the order of business, resolutions, etc., after which the convention adjourned until 7 P. M.

The principal fight is on delegates to Chicago. It looks as if H. F. Bartine would be the nominee for Congress and Murphy of Esmeralda for Supreme Judge.

Woodburn telegraphed that he would accept a re-nomination, but he had no friends.

LATER—6:40 P. M.—Stewart, Jones, Williams, Sharon, Hamilton and Foley elected delegates to National Convention. Powning beaten.

Alternates; J. W. Haines, J. Parsons, Dr. J. J. Meigs, A. Maute, Geo. C. Thaxter, J. Ponjade.

For Congress; H. F. Bartine, of Ormsby. By acclamation.

For Supreme Judge; M. A. Murphy, of Esmeralda, by acclamation. Presidential Electors; Dr. Robinson and A. C. Cleveland of White Pine, George T. Rice, of Humboldt.

Regents of University; Judge Wells, Senator Fish, and ex-Speaker George.

Ormsby Central Committee; Evan Williams, S. C. Wright, J. D. Torreyson.

Convention Adjourned.

DAVIS.

Bigler vs. Tahoe.

During the editorial administration of this scribe, the beautiful sheet of water in the mountains will be designated in the APPEAL columns as Lake Bigler, which is its proper and legal appellation. It is so called upon the map of the first U. S. survey ever made in these parts and the name has never been authoritatively changed. Perhaps the circumstances attending the alleged change to Tahoe may not be known to some of the APPEAL readers. In the California Legislature of '61 and '62, near the commencement of the war, some member, Parson Benton of Sacramento if we remember correctly, thought it an outrage that so beautiful a sheet of water should be called after a former Democratic Governor, who was then regarded as a copperhead. He commenced cudgelling his brains for a proper and euphonious appellation, but without success. In his dilemma he unfortunately applied to Hub Parker, a brother member, from Wild Goose Flat in El Dorado County, and as a matter of course was made the victim of a cruel practical joke by that waggish gentleman. Hub was a sort of Chief among the Cosumnes tribe of Digger Indians, and perfectly familiar with their nomenclature. In a moment of lunny inspiration he suggested the word Tahoe, which in Digger literature, is rather suggestive of Warner's Safe Cure than such a body of pure water as it was proposed to designate. The member from Wild Goose Flat of course gave another definition, and the name was instantly adopted by the evangelical Sacramento who at once drew up a resolution and rushed it through the Assembly. It never passed the Senate, as the hoax was exposed before it went into that body. No Hub Parker nor California Assembly can force us, a respectable Nevada journalist, to ignore history or outrage decency by accepting their arbitrary change from the proper name of Lake Bigler.

Wanted.

A first-class woman cook. Apply at Senator Jones' residence, Gold Hill, Nevada. a27tf

—John L. Sullivan has been on another spree in Boston. His European trip seems to have had rather a humanizing effect upon the brute, as it appears that he can get drunk without whipping a woman or knocking down a crippled newsboy.

THE INDIAN VENDETTA.

Two More Red-skins Sent to the Happy Hunting Grounds by the Angel Maker "Mudge."

"Mudge" the Indian who shot Johnny Shay last Sunday continued his bloody work Monday night by shooting from ambush two more Indians known as "John Elk" and "Jim." "Mudge," knowing that information had been sent to the Indians, working at Mariette and Folsom's camp of the shooting of Shay and, as a number of them were relations, and all friends of the assaulted man, evidently became desperate, and concluded to exterminate the whole lot as a precautionary measure to his own safety. Monday night about dusk he secreted himself in a deserted cabin in the canyon near Vesey's ranch, and as Elk and Jim, accompanied by two other Indians, came along the trail, opened fire upon them with his Winchester rifle, bringing down and instantly killing the two above named, the other two finding safety in flight although several times closely grazed by bullets from the murderer's rifle. The surviving Indians came on a keen jump to town and reported the affair to the civil authorities.

Sheriff Ulrick, with a number of men started in pursuit of the murderer, and Coroner Friend, Auther Davison, and Terence Brady went out to the scene of the murder and brought in the bodies. An inquest was held yesterday afternoon, and the bodies will be buried by the County. The Sheriff with his posse of white men and Indians is now scouring the hills in search of the blood thirsty savage, and it is hardly possible that he can escape for any great length of time, as nearly all the Indians in the County are in arms against him and if he falls into their hands, his canoe will be shoved across the dark river with but precious little ceremony. The two Indians killed Monday night are said to be sober and hard working men, John Elk having for sometime acted as boss of the gang of Indians working at Mariette and Folsom's ranch. It was reported last night that Mudge had killed two more Indians in Washoe Valley but the story lacks confirmation.

—LATER—Sheriff Ulrick has returned from the chase. He traced the murderer as far as Bower's Mansion in Washoe Valley when he lost the trail in the tall grass.

—Melville Weston Fuller, who has been appointed Chief Justice of the Supreme Court was born in Augusta, Maine, in February 1833. He is therefore 55 years of age. He was elected City Solicitor and President of the Common Council in Augusta when he was 23 years old. He went to Illinois in 1857, and located at Chicago. He was a member of the Illinois Constitutional Convention in 1861 and a member of the legislature in 1862. These are the only public offices he ever held, although he was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in '64, '72, '76, and '80. He is a man of considerable fortune and his law practice is worth probably $30,000 a year.
